Convenient Customer Onboarding

Customer visits app and selects account type.

Customer selects available ID type.

Customer enters full name and ID number then validates info with VerifyMe's ID verification API.

Returned ID data is used to prefill other required fields on the online form.

Confirm Data

Customer confirms editable data and submits application.

To confirm your client's location, you can use the address verification API which confirms your client's place of residence.