

USE CASES

Employment Verification

To request employment verification, you must provide details of the Employer: company/individual name, employer's email address, employer's phone number, contact person name, employment start and end date, job title/job duties.

We contact the employee's previous and/or current employer to provide us with information on their employment.

Information returned includes the terms of engagement, employee benefits, employee infractions; if any, and terms of disengagement.

We go a step further by providing reviews from the candidate's previous employer.